

I listen to K-LOVE every day at home, in my car & at work. My kids, grandkids and husband does as well. I think it is necessary in every community to let the listeners hear some upbeat Christian music rather than a lot of other music that is negative. It really does touch lives! Thank You!